

Student Work Showcase by CLASS

Student Work Showcase is a platform open to all CLASS teachers who are teaching Chinese language and culture. It is a place for teachers to publicly showcase their students' products, and share teaching strategies as related to Chinese language and culture.

Teachers are encouraged to submit their students' work to CLASS. Student-written articles, posters, videos, power points, e-books, blogs, websites, and musical productions are all welcome.

The submission guidelines:

1. Teachers need to submit his/her name, current school name, a description of the student's work (grade and level info) and a brief explanation of the teaching strategies related to the work assignment. Please submit your student's work with an online submission form.
2. The online submission form includes necessary information to post the student's work and a release agreement. Teachers must complete and submit this form online before CLASS considers posting the student's work.
3. The student's personal information and photos should not be included in the work. Their work will only be identified by first name or first name with last name initial.
4. CLASS will review the submission of student work and make a final decision for the posting. Once the work is accepted by CLASS, the teacher will be notified and the showcase will be posted on the CLASS website. The name of the teacher and school will also be listed with student's showcase. CLASS reserves the right to post and remove student work.
5. Teachers will warrant that all works submitted do not infringe upon or violate any personal or property rights of others, including but not limited to copyright, trademark, and rights of privacy and publicity, and that the works are not obscene or libelous.

CLASS is not responsible for the copyright of student showcase work.
